Hello Doris,

Thanks a lot for contacting us!

We haven't found any signs of improper use here. But you should probably add the information about the restriction of 20 simultaneous connections so that it wouldn't be a surprise for users.

We are also interested in cooperation with you. So could you please specify:

1. How successful is ONLYOFFICE product's placement on AWS? Are there any clients there?
2. Could you describe how you do business, is it all about AWS or you have other servers?
3. Would it be interesting for you to grow together and sign a partnership agreement with us? We could tell our customers about you and place the information about your company on our website.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,

Ksenia
